

Summary of Changes to the HELOC Agreement

In June 2017, we revised the HELOC Agreement which governs your home equity line of credit (“HELOC”). The revised HELOC Agreement has an effective date of August 1, 2017, unless you recently opened a HELOC Account and received the revised HELOC Agreement at that time, in which case the revised agreement has already taken effect.

The revisions made to the HELOC Agreement serve primarily to enhance the clarity of certain provisions and the general language of the document. Please refer to the revised HELOC Agreement to familiarize yourself with the terms and conditions which are now applicable to your HELOC Account.

Should you have any questions relating to the revised HELOC Agreement, you may contact us toll-free at 1-855-407-4600 during our business hours of 8:30am to 5:00pm (Eastern Standard Time) Monday through Friday, excluding statutory holidays. Thank you for your business. We look forward to continuing to serve your HELOC needs.

Introduction: This HELOC Agreement sets out the terms and conditions of the secured line of credit we may extend to you, as amended from time to time. You agree to pay back the money you borrow from us, and all interest owing on the money you borrow, according to the terms and conditions of this HELOC Agreement, the Commitment, the Mortgage, the Standard Charge Terms or any other agreement you have entered into with us that is applicable to your HELOC Account.

PART B: TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO THE HELOC AGREEMENT

1. Credit Limit for your HELOC Account and Available Credit

Your HELOC Credit Limit is the maximum amount you may borrow under this HELOC Agreement. It is set out in your Commitment and in the Statement of Disclosure provided to you.

Every time you use your HELOC Account, the amount of money available to you under the HELOC Credit Limit decreases. We calculate how much is available under the HELOC Account by deducting the amount you owe us from the HELOC Credit Limit. We will advise you of your available credit under the HELOC Account as part of the HELOC Statement that we send to you for your HELOC Account.

You agree that we may, at our discretion, reduce or terminate your HELOC Credit Limit without prior notice to you. Any reduction or termination of your HELOC Credit Limit does not necessarily mean the termination of the HELOC Account or any Mortgage Loan. If your HELOC Credit Limit is decreased, all amounts owing to us in excess of the new HELOC Credit Limit will become immediately payable and must be repaid to us without delay. We will not increase your HELOC Credit Limit without your consent.

To accommodate your future borrowing needs, or at your request, we may register the Mortgage in an amount that exceeds the amount of your HELOC Credit Limit.

You may, subject to our approval, re-borrow amounts repaid by you on a Mortgage Loan, in an amount that does not exceed the HELOC Limit. You may have to sign a new agreement for the amount you re-borrow.

You agree that if we let you borrow more than your HELOC Credit Limit, you are responsible for, and must pay on demand, the amount that exceeds the HELOC Credit Limit, plus interest and fees.

You acknowledge that any HELOC Account is made available to you in our sole discretion and we may terminate the HELOC Account and/or demand payment of all amounts owing by you under this HELOC Agreement or any amending agreement, at any time without prior notice to you, particularly, but without limiting our rights, upon a re-evaluation of your financial situation or if you are in default under this HELOC Agreement, any amending agreement, the Mortgage Loan or any other agreement with us.

You agree that our books and records shall be conclusive evidence of the amounts owing under this HELOC Agreement and the Interest Rates applicable to the amounts owing.

2. Accessing and Using Your HELOC Account

You can use the credit available, up to the amount of the HELOC Credit Limit, to borrow from us by any method that we agree to, including:

- (i) Access Card;
- (ii) HELOC Cheques; or
- (iii) Any other method we authorize you to obtain an advance.

You must not use your HELOC Account in any way that would cause the Outstanding Balance to exceed the HELOC Credit Limit.

If more than one borrower signs the Commitment which incorporates this HELOC Agreement (“Multiple HELOC Borrowers”), any one of you can borrow money up to the amount of your HELOC Credit Limit without the other’s consent. For further clarity, guarantors are not allowed to access the HELOC Account.

You acknowledge that you will only use the HELOC Cheques, the Access Card and the HELOC Account generally, for personal, family or household purposes and only for valid and lawful Authorized Transactions. You will pay us for all transactions made using the HELOC Account, including transactions made by a person authorized by you or non-permissible transactions. We may decline some transactions or refuse to pay HELOC Cheques issued by you and we will not be liable for any losses suffered by you or any third person as a result of such denial or refusal. We will not be liable if a merchant, a business or an ATM does not accept your Access Card or any HELOC Cheque for any reason. Your use of the HELOC Account through the Access Card or HELOC Cheques is always subject to any legal restrictions or regulations that the government or other applicable authority may impose.

Access Card: You may be provided with an Access Card in order to access your HELOC Account. If you are provided with an Access Card, the Terms and Conditions, as amended from time to time governing the use of the Access Card set out in Schedule 1, will apply to your use of the Access Card. Your use of the Access Card will be further evidence that you acknowledge and agree to the Terms and Conditions set out in Schedule 1. HELOC Cheques: Once your HELOC Account is approved, we will provide you with an initial set of HELOC Cheques, free of charge. If you would like to request additional HELOC Cheques, you can do so by calling 1-855-407-4600. Please note that there is a fee associated with ordering additional HELOC Cheques after the initial order that we send you for free. Additionally, please note that you may only write HELOC Cheques in Canadian dollars. If there are Multiple HELOC Borrowers, any one of you may sign a HELOC Cheque without the other’s knowledge or consent.

We will issue HELOC Cheques to each borrower on the HELOC Account. You are responsible for safeguarding all HELOC Cheques and you acknowledge that you will surrender all unused HELOC Cheques immediately upon request from us.

It is your responsibility to notify us immediately if any HELOC Cheques are lost or stolen to avoid liability for any transactions unauthorized by you. If you wish to dispute any HELOC Cheque transaction or entry on your HELOC Statement, you must provide written notice to us at Customer Service, Equitable Bank, 30 St. Clair Avenue West, Suite 700, Toronto, Ontario M4V 3A1 or call us at 1-855-407-4600 as soon as possible after you notice such error. Do not send the notice on or with your payment. We must receive your notice no later than thirty (30) days of the date of the HELOC Statement containing the disputed entry. We will acknowledge receipt of your written notice within thirty (30) days.

3. Charging You Interest on the HELOC

Interest is initially charged at the Interest Rate set out in the Statement of Disclosure that was provided to you. The current Interest Rate will also be set out on your HELOC Statement. Your Interest Rate will change automatically if and when the Equitable Prime Rate changes. Notice of any change to your Interest Rate will be provided in accordance with Section 15 of this HELOC Agreement entitled "Changing the HELOC Account".

You must pay interest on all amounts you borrow under the HELOC Account at the applicable Interest Rate both before and after any of the following events, if they occur:

- We ask you to pay the total amount you owe on the HELOC Account;
 - You fail to meet any of the terms of this HELOC Agreement;
 - You become bankrupt or insolvent or any one of you dies;
 - You have legal action taken against you or any of your property or assets; or
 - We receive a court order instructing you to pay us the money you owe;
- until all amounts owing are paid in full.

Note that we will not pay you any interest on any credit balances on your HELOC Account.

Cash Advances: There is no interest-free grace period on cash advances, which include the use of HELOC Cheques and any initial cash advance you received when you first opened the HELOC Account and cash advances obtained through the use of the Access Card including, but not limited to, withdrawals of cash made using the Access Card, transactions made using HELOC Cheques, and fees applied to your HELOC Account. Interest will be charged on all cash advances beginning on the transaction date of the cash advance, at the Interest Rate shown on your HELOC Statement.

Fees That Do Not Arise from Use of the Access Card: There is no interest-free grace period on fees that do not arise from use of the Access Card, including but not limited to the commitment fee, closing costs, HELOC Cheque re-order fee, discharge statement fee, discharge processing fee and renewal fee. Interest will be charged on these fees beginning on the applicable transaction date at the Interest Rate shown on your HELOC Statement.

4. How We Calculate Interest on the HELOC

Interest is charged on your Outstanding Balance by multiplying the total Outstanding Balance on your HELOC Account at the end of each day by the daily interest rate for the period in question. The daily interest rate is the Annual Interest Rate divided by 365 (366 in leap years). Interest is calculated daily and added to your balance on a monthly basis.

To determine the interest payable by you, your Outstanding Balance at the end of each day of the statement period is multiplied by the applicable daily interest rate and the resulting daily interest charges are then added together to determine the total amount of interest charged in the statement period.

Any overdue interest will become subject to interest charges at the Annual Interest Rate beginning on the first day of the next month's statement period.

5. Fees

The fees applicable to your HELOC Account are contained in the documents that have been or will be provided to you before your HELOC Account is made available. Please note that fees are subject to change at any time and that you will be notified in advance of a fee change or the imposition of a new fee when there are changes. Any fee payable by you may be added to your Outstanding Balance.

6. HELOC Statements

We will send statements and other communications to you by ordinary mail to the most recent address that we have for you on our records. Any communications we mail to you are considered to be received by you five (5) business days after mailing.

We will send you a HELOC Statement each month unless there are no transactions for that statement period and you do not owe anything on the HELOC Account. If a HELOC Statement is returned to us because it cannot be delivered, until such time as you provide us with a current mailing address, no further statements will be mailed to you and access to your HELOC Account for purchases and cash advances will be blocked.

When you receive your HELOC Statement, you must examine it carefully. If you believe there are errors, omissions or irregularities, you must notify us within thirty (30) days of the statement date. If you do not notify us of any errors, omissions or irregularities within thirty (30) days, then you are deemed to have agreed that:

- All entries and balances on your HELOC Account are correct;
- All HELOC Cheques paid from the HELOC Account are genuine, duly authorized and properly endorsed;
- All amounts charged to your HELOC Account are properly chargeable to you;
- You are not entitled to be credited to your HELOC Account with any amount that is not shown on the HELOC Statement; and
- You release us from all claims in connection with the HELOC Account, including any claims for negligence. This release does not apply to claims for gross negligence or willful misconduct or intentional fault by us, in which case our liability will be limited to the lesser of:
 - The amount of the credit or charge to the HELOC Account; or
 - The direct damages you suffer. We will not be liable for any indirect, special or consequential damages.

If we credit an amount to your HELOC Account by mistake, we can correct that mistake at any time.

You will be bound by this Section 6 even if your HELOC Statement is delayed or lost in the mail.

You must tell us promptly if you have not received a HELOC Statement no later than ten (10) days after the date on which you normally receive it. For greater certainty, this date may be no later than fifteen (15) Business Days after the date on which we mailed you the statement. You must pay all amounts owing to us, even if you do not receive your HELOC Statement or if it has been delayed.

If we are unable to send you a HELOC Statement at any time for any reason, such as a mail strike, you must contact us at least once per month to get the information you need to continue making payments as required.

7. Report of Loss/Theft

You must notify Equitable Bank immediately if your Access Card or any HELOC Cheques are lost or stolen or if you believe that your PIN or Access Card information may be known to a third party, or there are other circumstances from which one might reasonably infer that a fraud or unauthorized access may occur in connection with your HELOC Account. Subject to any other agreement you may have with us, you will not be liable for any unauthorized purchases made through the use of that Access Card or unauthorized withdrawals from the HELOC Account which occur after you have given us notice as required by this Section 7, or if your estate has given us immediate notice of your death.

8. Liability for Forgeries

You acknowledge that we will not, under any circumstance, be liable to you for any loss, even if we are notified within the time periods required by this HELOC Agreement, arising from a forged or unauthorized endorsement, impersonation or any material alteration of an instrument or instruction we act on to draw from your HELOC Account unless you have established to our satisfaction that you are not responsible for the disputed item and that you took all reasonable steps to prevent the forgery or impersonation and the resulting loss, and that despite that fact, the loss was unavoidable. You agree to cooperate fully with us in any investigation that may be required including any police investigation. Any liability we may agree to will be limited by a maximum liability equal to the amount of the disputed item and rules established by the Canadian Payments Association in effect at the time applicable to the forgery or material alteration including a ninety (90) day limitation on disputes arising from material alterations.

9. Payments

You promise to pay us all advances, interest and any fees associated with your HELOC Account. Your HELOC Statement will include instructions you must follow for making payments and will indicate the Payment Due Date for each period.

You agree to pay us amounts you owe by one of the methods indicated on your HELOC Statement. You must make your payments even if you do not receive a HELOC Statement and even if the normal mail service is disrupted. It is your responsibility to select a payment method which results in payments on your HELOC Account being received by us and credited to your HELOC Account by the Payment Due Date as shown on your HELOC Statement. If your Payment Due Date falls on a holiday or on a weekend, we will process your Minimum Payment Due on the following business day and will consider that payment as being made on time.

We will credit your payment to your HELOC Account as of the date of receipt, if your payment conforms to the payment requirements described on your HELOC Statement. For purposes of this paragraph only, the "date of receipt" means the date the payment instrument or other means of completing the payment reaches us.

Any payment received toward amounts owing under your HELOC Account shall be applied (i) first to pay charges and fees; (ii) then to pay interest; and (iii) lastly, to principal.

For any HELOC Statement where different Interest Rates apply to different amounts billed and owing on that statement (for example, because some of your balance is subject to an Annual Special Plan Interest Rate), any payment by you that is greater than the Minimum Payment Due set out in that HELOC Statement will be allocated among the different amounts starting with the amount being charged the highest Interest Rate first, and the amount being charged the lowest Interest Rate last. We reserve the right, subject to applicable law, to change the order in which we apply payments without prior notice to you.

If at any time you make a payment and you have some principal amounts owing that are being charged interest (such as from cash advances) and some principal amounts owing that are not being charged interest (such as from Access Card purchases that are still within the 21-day interest free grace period), we will allocate that payment first to the amounts that are not being charged interest, and second to the amounts that are being charged interest.

You may pay all or part of the principal amount owing on the HELOC Account at any time without notice, penalty or charge.

You must pay any amount owing that is more than the HELOC Credit Limit as soon as you are advised or become aware that you have exceeded your limit.

In addition, you acknowledge that we have the right to refuse any payment that we suspect is being made for illegal or fraudulent purposes.

There is no maturity date for the HELOC Account; it will continue until terminated by you or us. Please note that the HELOC we extend to you is 'on demand'. This means that upon demand by us, at any time and for any reason, you must pay us the total amount you owe under the HELOC Account immediately.

10. Minimum Payment

Each HELOC Statement will set out a Minimum Payment Due. The Minimum Payment Due may vary each billing period depending on the amount of the Outstanding Balance, as well as the charges incurred and payments made on the HELOC Account during the billing period. You agree to pay at least the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date which will also be indicated on each HELOC Statement.

We will determine your Minimum Payment Due for each billing period as follows: if your New Balance shown on a HELOC Statement is less than $10.00, your Minimum Payment Due will be equal to your New Balance. If your New Balance is equal to or greater than $10.00, your Minimum Payment Due will be $10.00 or the amount of interest outstanding on your HELOC, whichever is greater. Unless your balance is $10.00 or less, if you continue to only pay the Minimum Payment Due, you will only be paying interest and will never pay off your outstanding principal balance.

You agree that once a month on the applicable Payment Due Date we will debit your Bank Account for the Minimum Payment Due. You will sign whatever agreements may be required to process these pre-authorized debits and agree to waive any pre-notification requirements in respect of variable payment amounts.

Payment in excess of your Minimum Payment Due does not affect your obligation to make subsequent Minimum Payments Due, but instead will be applied toward reduction of your Outstanding Balance.

If you do not make the Minimum Payment Due on the Payment Due Date or do not comply with any other terms or conditions of this HELOC Agreement, you acknowledge that we may, in our sole discretion, deduct money from any other account you have with us and use it to pay the amount you owe.

11. Hold on Funds

We have the right to hold any payment on the HELOC Account and to defer any transactions you wish to make until we receive payment for the cheque, instrument or other method of payment that you used.

12. Default and Cross-Default

Total Debt Due: We may, at our option and without prior notice or demand, terminate this HELOC Agreement if any of the following events occur, each of which will be considered a default by you:

- (i) You fail to:
 - a) pay the Minimum Payment Due on your HELOC Account on its due date; or
 - b) make a payment on a Mortgage Loan on its due date;
- (ii) You fail to meet any of the terms or conditions of this HELOC Agreement; or
- (iii) You become insolvent or bankrupt or any one of you dies.

At our option, any default under the terms and conditions of this HELOC Agreement or under the Mortgage Loan will be a default under all credit (both the HELOC Account and the Mortgage Loan) we may extend to you. In that case, all amounts owing to us under all of the loans, including principal, interest and other costs and charges, shall, at our option, be immediately due and payable.

Any costs or expenses recoverable under the Mortgage shall be added first to your Mortgage Loan(s), if any, and then to the HELOC Account. Until fully paid, you shall pay interest on such costs or expenses at the interest rate applicable to the loan to which those costs or expenses have been added. If you are in default under this HELOC Agreement, or if we terminate the HELOC Account or demand payment of the amounts due under this HELOC Agreement, you agree to be liable to pay one or more of the following amounts, as applicable:

- The costs and expenses, including legal fees and disbursements, resulting from any legal action that we may take or which would be taken on our behalf to recover any unpaid amount or to take any other legal action under the terms of this HELOC Agreement, including in realizing on the Property or any other security interest taken under this HELOC Account or a Mortgage Loan or in protecting such security interest;

- Interest, calculated on any such costs or expenses charged to you under this HELOC Agreement;
- Administrative fees for a preauthorized debit for which payment is refused.

If we choose to terminate the HELOC Account, we may exercise our rights under any other security we may hold in order to secure your obligations under this HELOC Agreement.

Applying Moneys on Default: Any money we obtain from enforcing our rights under the Mortgage shall be used first to pay amounts owing under any Mortgage Loan(s), insured with default insurance (starting with the insured Mortgage Loan with the smallest Outstanding Balance), and once all insured Mortgage Loans are paid, then to amounts owing under any other Mortgage Loan (starting with the Mortgage Loan with the smallest Outstanding Balance), then to amounts owing under any HELOC Account (starting with the HELOC Account with the smallest Outstanding Balance). You waive any right of set-off or deduction you may have relating to any loan. Amounts owing under a Mortgage Loan or a HELOC Account include any costs incurred by us in connection with the exercise of our rights under this HELOC Agreement and any other agreements relating to your HELOC Agreement, including but not limited to the Mortgage.

13. Communications

Our Communications with You: We will deliver notices and other communications to the mailing address we have on record for you. Communication sent to you via regular mail will be deemed to have been received by you five (5) business days after we mail it.

If more than one borrower signed the Commitment and all of the borrowers consented to the provision of disclosures to one of the borrowers on their behalf (the “Designated Borrower”), then all of our communications and disclosures, including HELOC Statements, will be sent only to the Designated Borrower. If two or more but not all borrowers have consented to the provision of disclosures to the Designated Borrower on their behalf, we will send all communications and disclosures to the Designated Borrower on behalf of the borrowers who consented, and separately to each other borrower who has not consented.

14. Updated Information

It is your responsibility to notify us of any change to the address of the Designated Borrower and any other borrower who has requested separate disclosure. If you do not advise us of your change of address, you agree that your last known address will be your current address for the purpose of notice and service.

You agree, upon our request, to give us up-to-date credit and financial-related information about yourself. You also agree to promptly tell us about any unfavourable change in your financial position that may weaken your ability to perform your obligations to us under this HELOC Agreement. Until you do so, we may assume that all information you supply to us about your financial position is true and complete at the time you give it to us and any change in your financial position after that time is not an unfavourable one. You must also give us any other information we may request that is relevant to your HELOC Account and to this HELOC Agreement.

15. Changing the HELOC Account

You acknowledge that from time to time we may make certain changes to the terms and conditions applicable to your HELOC Account. We may at any time and in our discretion: (i) decrease your HELOC Credit Limit, (ii) change your Interest Rate and/or the Equitable Prime Rate, and (iii) change any charge or fee applicable to your HELOC Account, which may include adding a new fee. Subject to applicable law, we will let you know of such changes within thirty (30) days of the change. Notice to you may be provided as part of your HELOC Statement or otherwise in writing.

Upon thirty (30) days’ prior written notice to you, we may also amend any other terms and conditions of your HELOC Account, including, but not limited to, increasing monthly payments or non-interest charges. We will not increase your HELOC Credit Limit without your consent.

16. Changing the HELOC Agreement

You acknowledge that from time to time we may make certain changes to this HELOC Agreement. Notice to you of these changes may be provided as part of your HELOC Statement or otherwise in writing and also by posting a notification on our website. Subject to applicable law, we will let you know of any change that we make to this HELOC Agreement at least thirty (30) days before the change comes into effect.

Any change to this HELOC Agreement is made without prejudice, that is, without impairing our rights, without creating a new agreement, and without detracting from our rights, security and recourses.

17. Special Offers and Promotional Rates

We may make Special Plans available to you from time to time and other offers which may temporarily lower the Interest Rate applicable to certain portions of your outstanding HELOC Account balance. If we make a special offer available to you, we will explain its scope and duration and any additional terms that apply to it. If you accept the Special Plan, or such other offer, your HELOC Statement will set out the Special Plans or other offers which may apply to your outstanding balances, including but not limited to, any remaining balances associated with those rates, and when the promotion expires.

18. Subsequent Encumbrances

Other than the Mortgage on the Property, you will not further encumber, hypothecate or otherwise charge the Property in any way without first obtaining our prior written consent, and such further encumbering without our written consent will constitute a default under this HELOC Agreement. In addition to all other rights we have under this HELOC Agreement, your failure to comply with this Section 18 will result in our ability to, at our option, refuse to advance you amounts under the HELOC Account without regard to any availability under your HELOC Credit Limit.

19. Due on Sale

In the event that you wish to sell or transfer the Property or upon your entering into any agreements of sale or transfer for the Property, we may, at our option, require that all amounts under this HELOC Agreement immediately become due and all principal and outstanding interest on such loans will immediately become due and payable upon such sale or transfer and we may demand immediate payment under the HELOC Account. You agree that no sale, transfer or other dealing with the Property shall in any way relieve you of your obligations under the HELOC Account, and for payments owing under the HELOC Account, or in respect of the Total Debt.

20. Foreign Currency Transactions

We will bill you in Canadian currency. Please note that you cannot use HELOC Cheques outside Canada. Please refer to Schedule 1 Access Card - Terms and Conditions for information regarding foreign currency transactions completed with the Access Card.

21. Termination of this HELOC Agreement

You may terminate this HELOC Agreement by providing ten (10) days' prior notice in writing. If this HELOC Agreement is terminated, your obligations to us under this HELOC Agreement will remain in effect until you pay us the Total Debt you owe.

You also acknowledge that we may decide to cancel this HELOC Agreement at any time without providing you prior notice. Upon cancellation by us, you must pay all amounts you owe to us and immediately stop using the Access Card and HELOC Cheques.

22. Non-Waiver

Any failure by us to exercise any right arising from a default under this HELOC Agreement or Mortgage shall not constitute a waiver of such right.

23. Applicable Law

This HELOC Agreement will be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the province or territory in which the Property is located and all laws of Canada applicable therein. In the event of a dispute, you agree that the courts of the province or territory where the Property is located shall hear the dispute and you agree to be bound by any judgment of such court.

24. Conflict

If there is a conflict between this HELOC Agreement and the provisions of the Commitment, the provisions of the Commitment shall prevail but only to the extent of the conflict.

25. Costs Relating to the HELOC Account

You agree that you shall be responsible for paying all legal, property valuation, appraisal, survey and other fees and insurance premiums, if applicable, related to the HELOC Account. Where permitted by law, you shall also pay any fees and costs, including discharge and administrative fees we charge in the event we agree to release the HELOC Account. You also agree to pay the registration fee if we register the discharge of the HELOC Account.

26. Applicable Interest Rates if Rate Differs on the Mortgage

The Interest Rate indicated on the Mortgage may contain an Interest Rate that differs from the rate applicable to the HELOC Account or a Mortgage Loan made to you. You acknowledge and agree that in that case the Interest Rate that will apply to the HELOC Account will be the most recent Interest Rate communicated to you as indicated on the Commitment or as communicated to you from time to time according to Section 15 of this HELOC Agreement.

27. Liability

SCHEDULE 1Access Card – Terms and Conditions

This Schedule sets out the Terms and Conditions applicable to your Equitable Bank™ Visa* Access Card which are binding on you, Equitable Bank, and Peoples Trust Company with respect to the use of the Access Card.

Please read this document carefully and retain a copy for your records.

Your use of the Access Card will be further evidence that you acknowledge and agree to be bound by the Terms and Conditions herein, as amended from time to time.

Peoples Trust is the Issuer of your Access Card. The Access Card is provided to you in order for you to access your HELOC Account as long as you continue to act in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

We will be using the following definitions in these Terms and Conditions. If a term is not defined below, it has the meaning given to it in the Definitions section of the HELOC Agreement or within the section in which it is referenced.

“Applicable Law” means any statute, regulation or operating rule of any Governmental Authority or any other regulatory authority that Peoples Trust and Equitable Bank are subject to, or any bylaw, operating rule or regulation of Visa.

“Governmental Authority” means any Canadian federal, provincial, territorial, regional, municipal or local governmental authority, quasi-governmental authority (including the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions), government organization, commission, board, professional agency, tribunal, organization, or any regulatory, administrative or other agency, or any political or other subdivision, department, or branch of any of the foregoing, in each case to the extent it has jurisdiction over Peoples Trust and/or Equitable Bank or any Person, property, transaction, activity, event or other matter related to these Terms and Conditions. The above definition is deemed to include any interim or permanent transferee or successor of a Government Authority’s underlying mandate, function or activity.

“Issuer” and “Peoples Trust” mean Peoples Trust Company, the issuer of the Access Card.

“Person” means an association, a corporation, an individual, a partnership, a trust, an unincorporated organization or any other entity or organization.

“PIN” means the personal identification number that you will use to authenticate yourself when withdrawing cash at an ATM and when making a transaction at a chip-enabled merchant terminal.

“Terms and Conditions” means these terms and conditions applicable to your Access Card as outlined in this Schedule.

“Verified by Visa” means a password-protected authentication system designed to confirm the identity of the cardholder when a Visa card is used online.

“We”, “us”, or “our” all mean both Equitable Bank and Peoples Trust, including any affiliated service providers and third parties required to fulfill and manage your Access Card.

“You”, “your” or “yours” all mean you, the Access Card cardholder.

Ownership of the Access Card

The Access Card is owned by Peoples Trust Company and will remain the property of Peoples Trust. You agree that upon demand, you will return the Access Card to us or destroy the Access Card as instructed by us, immediately upon such request. The Access Card is provided for your sole use. You may not sell, transfer or assign the Access Card to a third party. You are restricted to one Access Card per borrower.

1. Using Your Access Card

You must sign the back of your Access Card in the indicated signature area immediately upon receipt. You are required to activate your Access Card before you use it. You may use your Access Card only to access your HELOC Account, by making purchases or obtaining cash advances at an ATM with the Visa and/or Plus logos. Any purchase or cash advance you make using your Access Card will be a transaction on your HELOC Account and will reduce the credit available on your HELOC Account. This amount will include any fees charged by, for example, ATM operators for their services.

You may use the Access Card for any legal transaction wherever Visa is accepted, and where such transaction would not put you over your HELOC Credit Limit. Your Access Card may not be used for any illegal purpose, including transactions for goods or services prohibited by Applicable Law. We may, at our sole discretion, deny any transaction.

If you choose to set up a pre-authorized debit (“PAD”) transaction, that is where you authorize an organization to withdraw funds from your HELOC Account using your Access Card number, you agree that you are responsible for providing that organization with adequate and up-to-date information, including advising any such organization should your Access Card expiry date or card number change. If you decide to discontinue any PAD transaction, you agree that it is your responsibility to provide written notice to the organization that you are cancelling your authorization for any further PAD transactions, and then to check your HELOC Statements to ensure that the transactions in question are discontinued once the organization receives your notice. You agree that it is your responsibility to settle any disputes regarding pre-authorized debit transactions directly with such organization. We are not liable if a PAD transaction cannot be posted to your HELOC Account.

You understand and agree that some merchants (including, but not limited to, restaurants, hotels, and car rental companies) may pre-authorize an Access Card transaction for a security deposit or a purchase amount plus an allowance (up to 20% or more of the purchase amount to allow for items such as tips or incidental expenses) to ensure there are sufficient funds available on your HELOC Account to cover the final purchase amount. Any transaction that would put you over your HELOC Credit Limit will be declined. A pre-authorized transaction will place a “hold” on those funds until the merchant sends us the final purchase amount or releases the security deposit. Once the final purchase amount is received, the pre-authorization amount on hold in excess of that final purchase amount will be released. It may take several days for a pre-authorization to be released or removed. You will not have access to any pre-authorized amount during a hold period.

Transactions Made In Foreign Currencies: Access Card transactions made in a foreign currency will be converted and posted to your HELOC Account in Canadian currency. The exchange rate is determined by Visa* International on our behalf on the date that the transaction is settled with Visa International. This exchange rate may be different from the rate in effect on the transaction date. When the transaction is posted to your HELOC Account, in addition to the exchange rate, a foreign currency conversion mark-up equal to 2.50% will apply to each foreign currency transaction. For any reversal of these transactions, the exchange rate will be determined in the same manner as of the date that the transaction is reversed and as such will in most cases differ from, and may be less than, the amount that was originally charged for that transaction.

2. Interest-Free Grace Period For Access Card Purchases

There will be an interest-free grace period on new Access Card purchases if you pay the entire New Balance shown on your monthly Account Statement by the Payment Due Date. If you do not pay the entire New Balance by the Payment Due Date, you will be responsible for paying interest on those new purchases at the rate shown on the front of your Account Statement from the first day of the next month's statement period.

There is no interest-free grace period on cash advances obtained through the use of the Access Card including, but not limited to, cash advances from ATMs. Interest will be charged on all cash advances beginning on the transaction date of the cash advance, at the Interest Rate shown on your HELOC Statement.

3. Cancellation of Your Access Card

If you terminate your HELOC Account, your Access Card will automatically be cancelled and you must destroy the card. If you would like to cancel your Access Card without terminating your HELOC Account, you may do so by notifying us in writing or via telephone and destroying the card. Your obligations under these Terms and Conditions continue after the destruction of your Access Card and your notice of cancellation. You are responsible for notifying any individual or entity you have pre-authorized to make charges to your HELOC Account using your Access Card number. If such individual or entity continues to make charges on your HELOC Account and we have reason to believe that you are attempting to use your Access Card number after cancellation of the card, we may or may not allow the transaction to be posted to your HELOC Account.

We may terminate your Access Card or these Terms and Conditions at any time and without prior notice to you if fraud is suspected, or for any other reason.

If these Terms and Conditions or the Access Card are terminated, you will continue to be liable for payment of outstanding transaction amounts, interest, and fees as of the date of such termination, or which are made on or prior to the date of termination, but which are posted to your HELOC Account after the termination date. If you have PAD payment transactions which are authorized on or before the termination date, and they are posted to your HELOC Account after that date, you will be liable for payment of such transactions and associated fees and interest.

If you are in default under the HELOC Agreement we may, at our discretion, cancel your Access Card and require that you return the card to us or destroy it. If we have to reclaim any Access Cards following a default and we incur any costs in doing so, you agree to pay our costs, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law.

4. Security of Access Card and Personal Identification Number (PIN)

For security purposes, your PIN will be mailed to you separately from your Access Card. You agree to keep your PIN absolutely confidential and for your use alone.

In order to keep your Access Card and PIN secure, we recommend at a minimum:

- (a) Keep possession of your Access Card at all times;
- (b) Do not keep a written record of your PIN;
- (c) Never share your PIN information with a third party (including family members, merchants or your financial institution), and take all reasonable precautions to ensure that no one finds out your PIN;
- (d) Do not leave receipts behind at an ATM or merchant; and
- (e) Ensure that you keep a note of your Access Card number and the Customer Service telephone number in a location separate from your Access Card in case of loss or theft.

5. Lost or Stolen Access Card and Unauthorized Use

You are responsible for all uses of the Access Card with the PIN at an ATM, whether initiated by you or anyone else using your Access Card and PIN. Be aware that if lost or stolen, your Access Card may be used without the PIN for transactions at retail locations and for online or telephone transactions.

If you become aware that your Access Card has been lost or stolen, or you believe that your PIN or Access Card information may be known to a third party, you agree to notify us immediately by calling the toll-free Customer Service number 1-877-338-4659 or from outside Canada or USA, call collect (727) 570-4899, and providing all pertinent information requested to aid in the recovery of your Access Card. If we are notified by you of a lost or stolen

Access Card, you will have no liability for unauthorized purchases made through the use of that Access Card which occur after we have been duly notified.

With the Visa Zero Liability policy, you must establish that you are not responsible for the disputed transactions. Some of the factors we consider in determining if you are responsible for the disputed transaction are: (a) whether you have used reasonable care to safeguard your Access Card and PIN against loss and theft; (b) whether you have reported multiple frauds related to your Access Card in the last twelve (12) months; and/or (c) whether you have been grossly negligent or have engaged in fraud.

Verification of a Zero Liability claim for a disputed transaction can take up to one hundred and twenty (120) days, once all paperwork has been received and confirmed by us, and may require a police investigation. You agree to cooperate fully with us in any such investigation that may be required.

You acknowledge that if you do not comply with these Terms and Conditions, or the HELOC Agreement, including the PIN security rules described above, other persons may be able to obtain information about you or the Access Card.

6. Disputes

You agree that we will not be liable in any way for any dispute arising out of the purchase of merchandise or services using the Access Card, the failure of any retailer to honour the Access Card, or the failure of an ATM machine to dispense cash. We are not responsible for any failure to supply, lack of suitability or quality of any goods or services purchased from retailers through the use of the Access Card. We are not liable for any action or failure to act of a retailer or a refusal by a retailer to honour the Access Card whether or not such failure or refusal is a result of any error or malfunction of equipment used to effect an authorization of the Access Card. We will not be liable for any damage, loss or inconvenience you may incur if you are unable to use the Access Card as a result of any failure, error, malfunction or technical problem with or at our service providers' systems or equipment, or with an ATM.

If you identify an error with a transaction, you must address it with the applicable merchant in addition to contacting us. You are still liable for payment of a disputed transaction. In the event of a merchant issuing a credit to your HELOC Account, we will credit your HELOC Account upon receipt of the credit voucher.

If you wish to dispute any transaction or entry made with your Access Card, please contact us immediately by calling the toll-free Customer Service number 1-877-338-4659. If Customer Service is unable to resolve the matter, disputes will be referred to a senior level within Equitable Bank. Our Customer Complaint Handling Procedures (CCHP) set out full details of Equitable Bank's dispute resolution process and are available on our website, www.equitablebank.ca, in our offices, or by calling us toll free at 1-855-407-4600.

If you are not satisfied with Equitable Bank's decision, you may also contact the Access Card issuer, Peoples Trust Company, at 1-855-694-6214 or refer to their complaint handling process, which can be found at www.peopletrust.com/about-us/resolving-your-concerns.

If for some reason Peoples Trust is unable to resolve your inquiry or concern, you may refer your inquiry or concern to the Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments at 1-888-451-4519. You may also contact the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada (FCAC) in writing at 427 Laurier Ave. West, 6th Floor, Ottawa, ON K1R 1B9. The FCAC can also be contacted by telephone at 1-866-461-3222 or through its website at www.fcac-acfc.gc.ca.

7. Notice of Data Protection and Privacy Policy

Information We Collect/Information Security: You acknowledge that both Equitable Bank and Peoples Trust may obtain personal information ("Cardholder Information") about you, including information (i) such as your name, address, telephone number and date of birth, (ii) provided by you during Customer Service calls, and (iii) about purchases you made with the Access Card, such as the date of the purchase, the amount and the place of purchase. We may also obtain information from providers of identity verification data and demographic information, in connection with our efforts to protect against fraudulent or unauthorized use of the Access Card and for regulatory compliance purposes. You may communicate with us through our Customer Service toll-free number or the website (www.equitablebank.ca) with regards to requests to access or rectify information related to you that we have obtained. If such information is obtained from providers of identity verification data and demographic information, we

If you have provided your consent, we may use Cardholder Information for direct mail communications and/or emails about upcoming promotions and offers. We may provide certain Cardholder Information to others as permitted by Applicable Law, such as to government entities or other third parties in response to subpoenas.

You recognize that the processing of the personal information you provide to Equitable Bank or Peoples Trust may involve the information being transferred to individuals or organizations outside the jurisdiction in which you reside (including, for example, disclosure to individuals or organizations in the United States). The laws on data protection in such other jurisdictions may differ from those in your jurisdiction and any personal information transferred to another jurisdiction will be subject to law enforcement and national security authorities in that jurisdiction. Subject to these laws, we will use reasonable measures to maintain protections of your personal information that are equivalent to those that apply in your jurisdiction. You hereby give your consent to such cross-border transfers (including, but not limited to, the United States) of such personal information to third parties for the purposes set out above.

If you consent to Equitable Bank or any other party collecting and using your Cardholder Information for their own purposes (not as a service provider to Peoples Trust), including to send marketing and promotional messages to you, then Peoples Trust will not have any control over, and will not be responsible or liable for, the collection, use, disclosure and retention of your personal information by Equitable Bank or third party, the marketing or promotional messages that they send to you, or any other wrongful act or omission by such party.

Should you not wish to accept these data protection Terms and Conditions, or wish to withdraw your consent and therefore cancel the Access Card, you must cut the card in half, return the card to us, communicate with Customer Service and request we cancel the Access Card and discontinue any further use of your personal information in connection with the use of your Access Card.

interpretation of any provision of this HELOC Agreement.

15. Severability
